

The Gateway

FLASH BULLETIN . . .

Vol. 26 Z-410

University of Omaha, Nebr., Feb. 23, 1948

No. 18A

DR. BAIL TO SUCCEED

PRES. HAYNES JULY 1

ROLAND HAYNES ELECTED PRESIDENT EMERITUS

The University of Omaha has a new president.

Dr. Philip Milo Bail, dean of the college of Education and director of the Division of General Education at Butler University, Indianapolis, Indiana, has been elected, it was announced today by Will R. Johnson, president of the Board of Regents.

Dr. Bail will take office July 1, to start a three year contract.

Rowland Haynes, who has been president of the university since the fall of 1935, has been elected president emeritus, effective July 1.

The new president who is 49 years old was born at Booneville, Missouri. He received his bachelor's degree from Missouri Valley College and his master's and Ph. D. degrees from the University of Iowa. He is married, but has no children, and he is a member of the Masons and the Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Bail knows education from all levels. He served first as a high school instructor in Iowa and Minnesota, he then supervised high schools at Hibbing, Minnesota, and later was principal of the University High School at the University of Iowa. He has taught every summer since 1928 in the University of Iowa summer school.

He is a member of the National Association of Secondary School Principals and the National Association of School Administrators.

Dr. Bail was selected from 121 candidates submitted by the Board, Faculty, Alumni and educational groups over the nation.

See tomorrow's Gateway for further details.

REMODELED BOOKSTORE TO OPEN TOMORROW

Noise reducer, display cases among features

The remodeled $10,000 Bookstore will open for business tomorrow afternoon.

Manager Ben Koenig and a crew have been working feverishly since the latter part of last week moving supplies from the Pow Wow Inn location.

The new store is an all-modern affair, boasting large showy plate glass windows, the latest in display cases and steel book shelves.

Koenig pointed out that an acoustically treated ceiling will cut down noise.

Several new services will be offered. Among them a browsing section which will permit students to look over trade books and magazines in open racks.

COUNCIL, CLASS OFFICER ELECTION WEDNESDAY, POLLS OPEN FOR VOTING FROM 10 TO 2 O'CLOCK

An All school election will be held Wednesday.

Students may vote for Student Council members from all classes and two class officers from 10 to 2 o'clock in Room 100.

Candidates for the senior Student Council member are Geraldine Whitted, Marilyn Henderson and Jeanne Finch. Either Marshall Ruchte or Frank Rathman will become Junior council member.

Sophomores running for the council position are Marilyn Bowler, Pat Hasch, and Sherry Selders. Eugene Hampton, Bob Duckworth, Erwin Shultz or Ralph Bichel will become the freshman Student Council representative.

Bob Williamson and Paul Youngstrom are contestants for the senior secretary-treasurer office while Judy Rutherford and Eileen Wolfe are competing for the sophomore secretary-treasurer position.